

You're invited...

HOMEOWNERS AND PUBLIC SITES DINNER MEETING

The Conservancy's joint meeting of Wright homeowners and public sites staff is the best opportunity to meet and mingle with fellow Wright owners over dinner and hear useful presentations by Wright experts.

This event is supported by a gift from the Susan and John Major Donor Advised Fund

Thursday, November 3
Grand Ballroom, Hilton San Francisco
Financial District (Third Floor)
750 Kearny St., San Francisco
$70 per person

6:30-7:15 p.m. Reception with cash bar

7:15-8 p.m. Dinner

8-9 p.m. Program: Landscape and Frank Lloyd Wright Structures

The Integrated Landscape of Frank Lloyd Wright's Darwin D. Martin House

Susana Tejada
Curator, Frank Lloyd Wright's Darwin D. Martin House

Susana Tejada will present an overview of implementation plans and preservation strategies for the rehabilitation of the Darwin D. Martin House's historic landscape...

MARTIN HOUSE PHOTO BY BIFF HENRICH/IMG INK

Susana Tejada is Curator of Frank Lloyd Wright's Darwin D. Martin House, where she oversees exhibitions, interpretation and scholarly programs for this National Historic Landmark...

An Adaptive Approach to the Historic Landscape at Hanna House

Laura Jones
University Archaeologist and Director of Heritage Services, Stanford University

The Hanna House is well known as the first nonrectilinear Wright building. Typical of Wright structures, the house is fully integrated into its site; mature trees are included within the building envelope...

Laura Jones is University Archaeologist and Director of Heritage Services for Stanford University. She is responsible for preservation programs for more than 100 archaeological sites...

HANNA HOUSE PHOTO BY SCOT ZIMMERMAN